Stella Beck

Hi, I'm Stella! I am a Kinder Goat, and my job on the farm is to make great milk for my goat and human kids. I live on a small farm with the rest of my goat family, a donkey, a pony, chickens, cats and a big old hound dog. Because of our wonderful personalities and our ability to make great tasting milk, we are quickly gaining popularity on small family farms - we are a great size for 4H kids, but still produce enough milk for a whole family.

My family now uses goats' milk for soap making, cheese, yogurt, ice cream and anything else we can think of! When people try it, they are surprised that they can barely tell the difference between my milk and cow's milk!

Caring for us is a big job, and it's hard to find people who can milk us when our owners go away. If we don't get milked, we can get very sick. Luckily, our friends at Allard Pet Sitting always take great care of all of us when our owners are gone, doing everything from milking us to fixing fences! We love Lindsay and Becca and wish them, and you, a very happy holiday season.
